

NCDD Networking Luncheon

Denver, Colorado (The Wellshire) - Friday, October 22

Our Program

10:30 am Sign In & Informal Networking

Check in early and mingle! Participants will receive a packet of materials (including NCDD's new Resource Guide on Public Engagement), and author Larry Dressler will be with us to hand out free copies of two of his top-notch books on consensus and facilitation (on a first come, first served basis).

11:00 am Welcome (Anne Neal)

Our M.C., Anne Neal of Vision-Mission-Strategy, Inc., provides an overview of the day. Amanda Kathryn Roman, Executive Director of the Citizens in Charge Foundation, welcomes everyone on behalf of our national and local sponsors.

11:10 am Icebreaker / Networking Activity (Anne Neal)

What brings you here today? Why are dialogue, deliberation and public engagement important to you?

11:20 am Clearly Defining Success in Dialogue & Deliberation (Martin Carcasson)

Martin Carcasson, director of the Center for Public Deliberation at CSU, will lead a discussion on our goals and how we define success in dialogue, deliberation and public engagement efforts. See the "Goals of Dialogue & Deliberation" comic on the inside back cover of the Resource Guide on Public Engagement for reference.

11:50 am Table Discussions: What's Happening In Colorado?

Choose three of four 10-minute table discussions and cruise around World Café style to learn about regional projects:

- Peter Adler, Keystone Center – work with multi-stakeholder engagement processes and public officials.
- Peggy Kerns, National Conference on State Legislatures – encouraging state legislators to embrace deliberative public engagement techniques.
- Bill Fulton, Civic Canopy -- supporting problem-solving networks through technology.
- Stan Deetz, University of Colorado at Boulder -- teaching college students about deliberative democracy, and the recent 3CG conference on Reinventing Governance.

12:30 pm Casual Networking Lunch

Unstructured; continue the conversations you started in the previous sessions if you'd like!

1:15 pm Case Studies (Paul Alexander and Steve Konieczka)

Paul Alexander of Regis University's Institute on the Common Good and Steve Konieczka of the U.C. Boulder Communication Department will lead us in an exploration of some of the strategies, common challenges and lessons learned from 2 large, ongoing regional projects: Colorado's Future Project and the Boulder Community Collaboration Group.

2:30 pm Building and Sustaining Collaborative Relationships (Bill Fulton and Barbara Lewis)

Bill Fulton of The Civic Canopy and Barbara Lewis of the Corporation for Positive Change will lead this segment on building and sustaining collaborative relationships among practitioners, community leaders, and the public sector in the Boulder-Denver region. To wrap up, attendees will share any ideas generated throughout the day and discuss next steps.

3:30 - 5:00 pm Happy Hour

Continuation of informal networking and dialogue located in the cozy Onyx Lounge.
